Chapter 1 by jarv bavouset

It was a normal Monday morning. You groan as you get up for school Today was the first day of school. Summer felt like it lasted for about two seconds.You were going to Summer view middle school. When you got in the bus it looked bright and happy.You enter the hallway.

Chapter 2 by Fay Sojourner

Suddenly a cute elf walked in.

You bumped into me. I spun around and see you. Like most teenage girls, you stare at me. Your pulse quicken. Your eyes widen. And like all the other human girls I encountered, you blush. But when you looked at me in that strange way, it felt different than the other times. Something I've never felt before. Something familiar that my elven mind has never thought of. Odd. "Hey," I say. You say nothing and just continue to stare. "Okay," I shimmy away, "I better get going." I walked away and you still stare. When I was gone, you leaned against the wall and dreamily sighed. You have your first high school crush. Me. Yeah, I know. Weird, right?

Well, we didn't know anything that would happen later down the road. We didn't know the future. We didn't that we meet again and all the commotion that followed(Like you accidentally turning me into a dog, but I become a boy again! We didn't know that you forget about our adventure which is why I am telling you now. I love you, Shyanna. So much because of that because I told you everything that had happened so far.
